

11th December 2009

Dear Parents,

F1 First-Term Examination

Please be informed that classes will be suspended from 4th January to 14th January because the first-term examination will take place in this period of time. Students who are absent from the examination because of illness must apply for a supplementary examination on or before 14th January by submitting a letter of application supported by a medical certificate.

Students who fail to apply for a supplementary examination will get no marks for that subject. Under some special circumstances, the head of the EDB may announce class suspension for schools; the exam on that day will be cancelled and re-scheduled. The timetable for other subjects, however, will remain unchanged. Related matters of the examination are as follows:

Date	Time	Subject
4 th Jan (Mon)	8:30-9:00	Liberal Studies
	9:20-10:05	English Composition
